Network Marketing in Austria

- Austria is one of the 10 richest countries in the world in terms of GDP per capita, has a well-developed social market economy, and a very high standard of living.
- With a population of 8.2 million, Austria is a small but relatively dynamic EU member country
- It tends to be overlooked as a place for business, mainly because of the large German market next door, with ten times the population.
- Austria offers many attractive features as an investment location, and recent Austrian governments have sought to increase that attractiveness through economic reforms.

FreeLife Germany & Austria
